CITY BREVITIES.

Two bicycle messenger boys collided at Fourteenth and I Streets northwest last night. One of the lads, Eddie Burroughs, aged fourteen years, was thrown to the street and rendered unconscious. He was removed to the Emergency Hospital, where his condition was pronounced not serious.

Julia Martin, an elderly woman, was found unconscious in her home, 100 B Street northeast, last evening. She was taken to the Casualty Hospital, where an examination showed she was suffering from a hemorrhage of the brain. The woman was alone in the house when taken ill.

SMALLPOX VICTIM CAUGHT

DISEASE FROM PLAYMATE
 Irene Harding, a little girl twelve years old, living at 24 D Street southeast, was found yesterday afternoon by the Health Department to be suffering with smallpox. She was removed to the hospital, and the house was placed under quarantine.

The Harding child took the disease from Louise Belcher, whom she visited next door, about two weeks ago, while the latter was supposed to be ill with chickenpox. The two girls were playmates.

MISSOURI SOCIETY MEETING.

The regular meeting of the Missouri Society will be held tomorrow night at their hall at 719 Sixth Street northwest. Dr. Laws, former president of Columbia University, of Missouri, has accepted an invitation to be present. The entertainment committee has arranged a good program, including dancing.

NO BLUFF ABOUT IT.

There is no bluff about "Old Glory" beer. It is honest all the way through, and the enormous sale of it in the District is entirely due to its merit. It has never been very extensively advertised. It is simply the case of a good thing working its way to the front. Don't put up with an inferior article when you can get the best. Instead of simply calling for a glass of beer call for a glass of "Old Glory" and telephone the Abner Brewery Co., Main 3138, for a case to be sent out to the house.

THE NEWS OF GEORGETOWN.

Committees for Silver Star Lodge.

Silver Star Lodge, No. 20, I. O. G. T., of Tenleytown, D. C., met at its hall on Brookville Road, last night, under the most favorable circumstances, having an attendance of about seventy-five members and visitors. A committee of five was appointed to arrange for social gatherings for the benefit of the members and their friends, at least once a month, and an athletic committee of three organized to arrange a series of athletic games with the other Good Templar lodges of the District.

The program for the evening, in charge of the committee, Daniel Wells and Amanda Hurley, was as follows: Duet, Lizzie Dean and Mamie McGinnis; conglomeration by A. J. Yowell; vocal solo, Maude Pinder; recitation, J. W. Jessup, of Minnehaha Lodge; solo, Joseph Finney; selections by the lodge octet; piano solo, Josephine Boteler; solo, Edith Allen; and solo by Joseph St. John.

The next Sunday evening gospel temperance meeting will be addressed by C. M. Phelps, of Washington, D. C., and the meeting following will be addressed by Creed M. Fulton, member of the Washington Bar Association.

Clarence Williams, Colored, Injured.

Clarence Williams, colored, fifty-seven years of age, was painfully injured yesterday afternoon while at work in the stone yard of Charles G. Smith & Son, on K Street, between Thirty-second and Thirty-third. He was assisting in loading a scow, when a large rock rolled upon his right foot, badly crushing it. He was taken to the Georgetown University Hospital, where medical treatment was rendered. Several of the small bones in the instep were broken. Williams resides at 811 Twenty-third Street northwest.

Accident in Power House.

While working in the yard of the Capital Traction Company's powerhouse on Grace Street, between Thirty-third and Potomac, yesterday afternoon, Peter Miller, a young colored man, had his left foot badly lacerated. He and a fellow-workman were carrying an iron rail, when Miller dropped his end of the rail upon his foot. He was taken to the Georgetown University Hospital.

To Dedicate Baptist Church.

The West Washington Baptist Church, at the northwest corner of Thirty-first and N Streets, will be dedicated on or about April 15. The exact date has not yet been set. Rev. Cornelius C. Coleman, pastor of the church, is now making preparations for the affair. An effort will be made to have present at the exercises all of the members of the Baptist clergy of Washington, the Columbia Baptist Association of the District, and other notables of the Baptist faith.

Father Scanlon to Lecture.

The Rev. Father Michael Scanlon, formerly principal of the Trinity Parochial School, and choirmaster of Trinity Church, will deliver a lecture at Gaston Hall on the evening of April 15, for the benefit of the new Trinity Parish hall and school house.

Fair for Trinity Hall.

The following committee has been appointed to make arrangements for the fair to be held at Trinity Hall in April:

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

What a gay sight the race course at Senning will be tomorrow, with all the fashion and beauty present to witness the Chevy Chase Hunt Steeplechase, the local sporting event of the year, and an open steeplechase. Nine of Washington's most prominent society men in the saddle, and nine of the chosen hunters of Washington's pride hunt club in the Chevy Chase. For the accommodation of the public, tickets for the one day only, may be had from the steam cars and on the boardwalk from street cars to track entrance from authorized representatives of the Jockey Club.

TWO WILLS FILED FOR

PROBATE WITH REGISTER

Two wills were filed yesterday for probate in the office of the Register of Wills. That of Louis Shade is dated January 24, 1901, and he leaves his estate to his wife, Anna Shade, who is named executrix without bond. Margaret Casey, by her will dated June 26, 1902, leaves her estate to her husband, John Casey, for life. Upon death it is to be divided among her children.

REVIVAL MEETINGS.

The revival meetings at the Tenth Street Baptist Church, Tenth and R Streets northwest, the Rev. S. Geriah Lamkin, pastor, are largely attended every night. The pastor is assisted by the Rev. Theodore Hawkins, pastor of Mt. Zion Baptist Church, of York, Pa., and others.

CALVARY SUNDAY SCHOOL

TO OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY

Reception Tonight Begins Series of Ceremonies.

The first public service marking the fortieth anniversary of Calvary Baptist Sunday school will be held this evening at 8 o'clock. A reception is to be given by the adult and home departments of the school to their friends.

The annual roll call of the school will be read Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. A booklet is now being published covering the history of the school, which was organized forty years ago with a membership of forty, and now counts 2,000 members on its roll. The Sunday exercises are to be held in the auditorium of the church and will take the place of the regular morning service.

The third and last meeting of the series will be held Friday evening, April 3. The annual banquet will then be given by the officers and teachers of the school. Addresses will be made by several well known members of the congregation and by the Rev. Kerr Boyce Tupper, D. D., of Philadelphia.
